

Showdown in the Swamp
COVID-19 SAFETY PROCEDURES

The Showdown in the Swamp, Brantley County FFA, and the Okefenokee Fairgrounds assumes no responsibility for the transmission of COVID-19. By entering the Showdown in the Swamp Steer & Heifer Show, Brantley County FFA, and the Okefenokee Fairgrounds and all participating parties of liability.

The exhibitor accepts responsibility for their own personal safety and the safety of others by following CDC guidelines which includes social distancing and wearing a mask when social distancing is not possible.

Please bring a mask or face covering and use as needed when not social distancing. Make sure the mask covers your nose and mouth. The show will be held outdoors, therefore, a mask will not be required unless social distancing is not possible.

Avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth.

Utilize hand sanitizing stations and wash hands frequently.

Do not enter the fairgrounds if you are susceptible to illness, are experiencing fever, show signs of COVID-19 or been exposed to COVID-19.

The Showdown in the Swamp and all parties will follow the recommended CDC guidelines. Please review before arriving.