2019 UGA Commercial Dairy Heifer Show - Judge Biographies

Good morning/afternoon.

At this time we would like to introduce our judges for the 2019 UGA Commercial Dairy Heifer Show. We are very excited to have both Amanda Lutz and Tina Horn here to judge our show this year!

Amanda and Tina both grew up on a small family Jersey dairy farm in Virginia and were both very active in 4-H and FFA. From there, they both went on to attend and graduate from Virginia Tech and each earn a Bachelor of Science in Dairy Science while also being members of the Virginia Tech Dairy Judging Team.

Amanda currently lives in Chester, South Carolina where she and her husband milk 70 registered Jerseys along with a couple of Holstein and Guernsey cows. She helps coach various FFA Dairy Judging teams along with the York County 4-H dairy club judging teams and is currently a committee member for the Clemson Spring Dairy Show steering committee, a member of the South Carolina Jersey Cattle Association and helps lead the Jersey Youth Association. In addition, she helped organize and hosted the Southeast Dairy Judging Workshop held in Chester in January. She was also an associate judge at the National Jersey Jug Futurity in 2016.

She is judging Ring 1.

Tina is currently an Extension Associate at Clemson University with statewide dairy responsibilities including coordinating the South Carolina 4-H Dairy Heifer Project and Sale, the State 4-H and FFA Dairy Judging and Dairy Handlers contests, the Clemson Spring Dairy Show, the South Carolina Dairy Hall of Fame, along with dairy producer and youth education.

She is judging Ring 2.

Again, we are very excited to have both ladies here today as our judges and would like to give them a warm welcome to Athens!
